

Fact or Fiction

The MUD Office furniture was auctioned off and it has all been sold.

FICTION

The MUD Office furniture was not placed in an auction.

As of today, January 23, 2017, there are a few furniture and décor items still for sale.

No one on the HOA board knew how to bid in the auction for the MUD Office furniture.

FICTION

The MUD Office furniture was not placed in an auction.

There was a joint HOA-MUD meeting held on November 30, 2016. Several HOA board members were in attendance, including Judy Doll, John Nemec, and Danny Rodriguez. On hand from the MUD's Perimeter Wall Team were Anne Headley, Denean Bennett (via conference call), Mark Adam and Michael Murr. Valerie Overbeck was there as Chapparral Management's representative. At this meeting, it was announced that Michelle Tsatsaronis, the real estate agent selected by the MUD Office review committee, placed the items on a website on which they could be viewed and paid for.

The details concerning how to purchase the office items were re-stated in email to Judy Doll, by Anne Headley, on December 6, 2016 and December 11, 2016.

The January MUD Meeting location has changed.
